

Appendix 5. Sample OSCE questions for online delivery

Question 1

- a) What is the diagnosis?
 - Pulp space infection (Felon)
- b) What is the most common mechanism of injury?
 - Minor penetrating trauma / abrasion which has been neglected
- c) Most common organism involved and the antibiotic of choice?
 - Staph aureus
 - First gen. Cephalosporin / Augmentin \pm aminoglycoside
- d) What is the definitive management of this condition?
 - Incision and drainage and irrigation w/ ring block
 - Tourniquet
- e) Name 3 common complications of this condition
 - Osteomyelitis of the distal phalanx
 - Pyogenic flexor tenosynovitis
 - Septic arthritis of the DIPJ
 - Skin and soft tissue necrosis

Question 2

- a) Describe the x-ray
 - AP and lateral views of a skeletally immature patient showing a fractured supracondylar area with complete posterior displacement
- b) Diagnosis
 - Gartland type 3 supracondylar fracture (extension type)
- c) Mechanism of injury
 - FOOSH with elbow extended
- d) Definitive management
 - Manipulation and percutaneous pinning / ORIF
- e) Name 3 early complications of this injury
 - Median nerve injury (Anterior interosseous branches)
 - Brachial artery injury
 - Compartment syndrome